Happy Friday again, I hope you have had a lovely week.

As you will know, we have had a big focus this week on keeping safe online. In our assemblies today children were sharing some of the things they have learnt about through their discussions and activities in class. There was advice to be respectful, especially when you are playing games online, video calling friends and relatives or just using the internet to message others. Several children mentioned the importance of keeping personal information safe, and we should never meet someone in person that we have met online. Other children talked about how they have tried to cut down the number of hours they have spent on their devices. All good advice!

We hope you continue to stay safe in your families online and we will continue to provide advice and links through our newsletters.

Book Week (1st - 4th March)

We have provided an information letter with this newsletter that highlights all that we will be doing to celebrate Book Week after half term. There will be lots of things going on as we go BOOK CRAZY!! from the 1st - 4th March.

Absences

If a child is absent from school it is really important that you please call the school office to let us know why. You can either leave a message on the dedicated absence answer phone, speak to a member of our office team or email:
